- o The report is indeed preliminary, but we believe that we have a good start towards September's document. Clearly, much hard work needs to be done between now and September to formulate my recommendations on what additional investments against the Soviet military target would produce the greatest improvements in capability. Moreover, Deputy Director Gates is scheduled to brief the report to your Committee on 25 June and answer any questions. In the interim, I would of course be glad to discuss any aspect of this effort with you. [REDACTED]

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
